OBSTRUCTION MERELY.

"I will urge the president to make a rigid investigation of the congressional results in the recent election.' -Chas. Hunter, chairman of the state republican central committee.

"Each house shall be the judge of the election returns and qualifications of its own members."-United States Constitution.

"I believe that the whole election should be contested. There is plenty of ground for that, judging from the instances that have been brought to my attention."-Chairman Hunter.

Now you have it. Anything to delay or hamper statehood, legal or illegal, seems to be the burden of the obstructionist's song.

Knowing that only congress can deal with the election of congressmen. yet the republican committee, through its chairman, would have the president intrude on ground committed by the constitution to congress, and all for what purpose? Merely to catch the ear of the President, if by any means discredit may be thrown upon the election returns and statehood delayed or defeated thereby.

If there are any election frauds and Mr. Hunter or any of his henchmen has any facts to present let him go to the courts and prosecute the guilty criminally.

This is the remedy prescribed by the enabling act, which reads as fol-

"That the election laws of the territory of Oklahoma now in force, as far as applicable and not in conflict with this act, including the penal laws of said territory of Oklahoma relating to elections and illegal voting, are hereby extended to and put in force In said Indian Territory until the legislature of said proposed state shall otherwise provide, and until all persons offending against said laws in the election aforesaid shall have been dealt within the manner therein prowided."

The election ordinance contains sim-Mar provisions.

Yet the chairman of the republican central committee wants a presidential investigation, or something to cast reflection on the election and if possible, defeat or delay statehood.

Lett there be all needful or proper investigations, but be careful how they for one moment impede statehood. The people of the new state are not in a mood to stand fo rany more acrobatic performances of obstructionist clowns. They said so, too, by 100,-300 majority at election. The republican party only needs to give a few more seances to be completely eliminated from Oklahoma politics. It is a marvel that the wiser heads of the party do not see it.

The one thing that the people of the new state demand at once is that all obstructionists stand out of the way of statehood on pain of incurring the resentment of over a million hardy pioneers, who, already stung by outwages, now demand self-government. -Guthrie Leader.

OKLAHOMA DEVELOPMENT SO-CIETY.

"Tell the world of the wonders of the new state." Slogan of Oklahoma Development society.

Oklahoma is a land of great opportunities. However, the people do not all know it. They must hear the story, see the country and know the conditions.

The new society recently organized at Oklahoma City is state-wide in its scope. Its intention is to develop the new state as a whole and thereby develop each part. All cities are entitled to repreentation. Every city

Oklahoma City, Ok., Oct. 17.-Adopting a new basis of representation at future grand lodge meetings by allowing but one representative for each 100 members, the Grand Lodge I. O. O. Strough, secretary, the order has a membership of 14,766, an increase of 1, 570 during the past year. Twenty-two lodges have been added to the roll, making the total 250. #### OKLAHOMA'S COTTON CROP.

The cotton ginned in Oklahoma up to October first was 13,382 bales and in the Indian Territory 17,346 bales. This seems like a small amount of cotton to have been ginned up to that time, but Oklahoma cotton matures comparatively late. Last year Oklahoma had ginned up to the same date 8.149 bales and Indian Territory 9,421 bales, says the Oklahoma Times-Jour-

This shows a vast increase in Okla homa over last year, but that does not indicate that the final yield will be greater than last year, although the yield may exceed that of last year because of the greater acreage.

Besides Oklahoma and Indian Territory only Georgia and South Carolina showed a greater yield this year than last year up to October first. All the rest show a falling off of yield I nthe nation the yield up to the date named was a half million bales less tha nlast year.

While the first two reports indicate nothing of the yield for Oklahoma and Arkansas because o ftheir latitude the yield at this time does not tell whether the yiel dfor the nation is to be great or small. It can now be put down as a certainty that the yield wil not reach the figures of last year This means a great price and a vast sum of money for the state of Okla-

Last year Oklahoma produced 418, 190 bales and the Indian Territory 418,469 bales of a total for the state of 904,618 bales. While the yield in some sections of the state will not be so heavy per acre as last year in other sections it is better and the acreage is greater. This makes it certain that the yield will be as great as last year and many people believe the total will reach a million bales. Oklahoma Fair Closes.

Oklahoma City, Ok., Oct. 18 .- Oklahoma's first state fair closed yesterday. Crowds have attended each day, and although the figures on the attendance have not been compiled, it is estimated that 110,000 have been on the grounds during the ten days. On Oklahoma City and Derby day 28,000 people thronged the grounds. The exhibit of agricultural and farm products has not been as large as it was hoped for, owing to the lateness in arranging for the Fair. For the 1908 Fair more build ings will be built. Many of the exhibitors and race track followers are leaving for Dallas to attend the Texas State Fair.

Suggest Conference of Judges.

Guthrie, Ok., Oct. 17 .- Stillwell H Russell, district judge-elect of Ardmore, who has been here attending the state ticket canvass, will communicate with the other district judges-elect of the new state, suggesting that they meet in Guthrie whe nthe supreme court does, immediately after presiconferring about the district terms.

"There are a number of things the judges should gather and consider," said Judge Russell tonight, "in order to begin the legal machinery smoothly.

"It is my opinion a special term should be held in each district to arrange for the transfer of cases from and to the various dockets."

Masons Adjourn Reunion.

Attend the Revival Meeting at the Pres byterian Church.

Begins Sunday, Oct. 20, at 11 a. m. Evangelist Burke of Rusk, Tex., will assist J. R. Browne, pastor, in a series of revival services. Evangelist Burke is a great character, a fluent and pleasing speaker. He knows how to deal with human nature, how to hold and sway an audience. He belongs to a class in the evangelical field unique and peculiarly his own. He makes you laugh and cry. To hear him is to become interested and want to live a better life. When the revival closes we will be glad Burke passed this way. There will positively be no abuse. The subject Sunday morning will be "What Is Your Life," and in the evening, 'Jesus the Light of the World."

We dispensed with our evening services when other churches were holding meetings therefore we cordially invite pastors, their people, and everybody to co-operate with us.

ON THE SAME GRADE OF GOODS

When people put you on your guard against the qualities of our goods they have but one object in mind and it is this: To justify the higher prices they charge. We urge every person to compare our goods with the goods of any other store in Oklahoma. We are always ready to help you do it, because it is our interest. If there are any lines you have not yet tried us on, come in and let us show you, for there is no doubt but what we can sell you the same article for less than you have been paying for it.

Conspicuous and continuous success cannot be reared on a faulty foundation. This is the beginning of our fifth year in Ada and we sell more in a week now than we sold in six weeks four years ago and our business is growing larger every day. What better evidence could you ask for than our growing business as to who sells good goods cheap?

OBSTRUCTION MEBELY.

"I will arge the president to make n rigid investigation of the congresesonal results in the recent election. -Chas. Hunter, chairman of the state republican central committee.

Each house shall be the judge of the election returns and qualifications of its own members."-United States Constitution.

"I believe that the whole election should be contested. There is plenty of ground for that, judging from the instances that have been brought to my attention."—Chairman Hunter.

Now you have it. Anything to de-Tay or hamper statehood, legal or Hlegal, seems to be the burden of the obstructionist's song.

Maowing that only congress car itsel with the election of congressmen yet the republican committee, through its chairman, would have the president Intrude on ground committed by the constitution to congress, and all for what purpose? Merely to catch the car of the President, if by any means discredit may be thrown upon the election returns and statehood delayed or defeated thereby.

If there are any election frauda and Mr. Hunter or any of his henchmen has any facts to present let him no to the courts and prosecute the guilty criminally.

This is the remedy prescribed by the enabling act, which reads as foi-

That the election laws of the territory of Oklahoma now in force, as far as applicable and not in conflict with this act, including the penal laws of said territory of Oklahoma relating to elections and illegal voting, are hereby extended to and put in force In said Indian Territory until the legbelature of said proposed state shall otherwise provide, and until all persons offending against said laws in the election aforesaid shall have been dealt within the manner therein pro-

The election ordinance contains simflar provisions.

Yet the chairman of the republican central committee wants a presidential investigation, or something to cast reflection on the election and if pos sible, defeat or delay statehood.

Let there be all needful or proper investigations, but be careful how they for one moment impede statebood. The people of the new state are mot in a mood to stand to rany more acrobatic performances of obstructionlst clowns. They said so, too, by 100, •60 majority at election. The republican party only needs to give a few seances to be completely climinated from Oklahoma politics. It is a marvel that the wiser heads of the party do not see it.

The one thing that the people of the new state demand at once is that all obstructionists stand out of the way of statehood on pain of incurring the resentment of over a million hardy pioneers, who, already stung by outmages, now demand self-government. ---Guthrie Leader.

OKLAHOMA DEVELOPMENT SO-CIETY.

"Tell the world of the wanders of the new state." Slogan of Oklahoma Development society.

Oklahoma is a land of great oppor tunities. However, the people do not They must hear the m⊞ know story, see the country and know the conditions.

The new society recently organized 🛥 Oklahoma City is state-wide in its one. Its intention is to develop the new state as a whole and thereby develop each part. All cities are entitled to representation. Every city should help boost for the new era.

Perhaps no one has more clearly manressed the purpose of the new society than Mr. C. B. Schmidt, immigration commissioner for the Rock Isiand system whose headquarters are in Chicago. Speaking at the recent ing good use of their remarkable opmortunities, but even then there are usiness and industrial chances going to waste and all the people of the states are invited to help themselves. The modern law of trade is that cas comes to him who goes after The mercantile world Ads business. does not want for customers, it sends agent its traveling salesmen. The hard and fast law of advertising, that compels the mercantile world, does not exempt communities or states,

It therefore becomes that the slogan of the Oklahoma Deelopment society be taken up by every ampiring city in the new state, Guthyle Londor.

OKLAHOMA'S COTTON CROP.

The cotton ginned in Oklahoma up to October first was 13,382 bales and in the Indian Territory 17,346 bales This seems like a small amount of cotton to have been gluned up to that time, but Oklahoma cotton matures comparatively late. Last year Oklahoma had ginned up to the same date 8.149 bales and Indian Territory 9.421 bales, says the Oklahoma Times-Journal

This shows a vast increase in Okla homa over last year, but that does not indicate that the final yield will be greater than last year, although the yield may exceed that of last year be nuse of the greater acreage.

Besides Oklahoma and Indian Ter ritory only Georgia and South Carolina showed a greater yield this year than last year up to October first. Al the rest show a falling off of yield the nation the yield up to the date named was a half million bales less tha plast year.

While the first two reports indicate nothing of the yield for Oklahoma and Arkansas breause o fiheir lafitude the yield at this time does not tell whether the yiel dfor the nation is to be great or small. It can now be put lown as a certainty that the yield will not reach the figures of last year This means a great price and a sum of money for the state of Okla-

Last year Oklahoma produced 418. 130 bales and the Indian Territory 418.469 bates of a total for the state of 994,618 bates. While the yield in some sections of the state will not be so heavy per acre as last year other sections it is better and the icreage is greater. This makes it certain that the yield will be as great as the total will reach a million bales. This at more than $50 a bale, will bring to the state a vast sum of money. There will come to the state for this cotton before planting time next spring $50,000,000 which will be thoroughly distributed and will almost pass through the hands of the merchants of the state, or it, will if the merchants seek it.--Muskogee Phoenix.

Oklahema Fair Closes

oma's first state tair closed yesterday Crowds have attended each day, and although the figures on the attendance have not been compiled, it is estimated that 110,000 have been on the grounds during the ten days. On Oklahoma City and Derby day 28,000 pecple thronged the grounds. The exhibit of agricultural and farm products has not been as large as it was hoped for, owing to the lateness in arranging for the Fair. For the 1908 Fair more build ings will be built. #### Suggest Conference of Judges. '

OUR PRICES

Guaranteed to be the Lowest

ON THE SAME GRADE OF GOODS

When people put you on your guard against the qualities of our goods they have but one object in mind and it is this: To justify the higher prices they charge. We urge every person to compare our goods with the goods of any other store in Oklahoma. We are always ready to help you do it, because it is our interest. If there are any lines you have not yet tried us on, come in and let us show you, for there is no doubt but what we can sell you the same article for less than you have been paying for it.

Conspicuous and continuous success cannot be reared on a faulty foundation. This is the beginning of our fifth year in Ada and we sell more in a week now than we sold in six weeks four years ago and our business is growing larger every day. What better evidence could you ask for than our growing business as to who sells good goods cheap?
